ANNUAL REPORT 2015

TO OUR STAKEHOLDERS

Blue Teapot is a multi-award winning Theatre Company at the forefront of arts & disability in Ireland. We also run a Performing Arts School and two Outreach programmes for people with intellectual disabilities. Blue Teapot is committed to high quality theatre, training and the celebration of creativity.

Our mission is to effect positive change in public consciousness concerning people with intellectual disabilities through the medium of theatre, allowing our members inherent talent and creativity to speak for itself.

MESSAGE FROM CEO

I am delighted to present the 2015 Annual Report for Blue Teapot Theatre Company and wish to acknowledge the considerable contribution made by everyone involved in the programme of activities and events throughout the year including actors, performing arts students, outreach participants, tutors, funders, volunteers and staff. I would personally like to give my sincere thanks to both Sonja Brodie and Danielle McDonnell for keeping the show on the road when I took a four month leave of absence.

Highlights of the year include two weeks dedicated to investigating the premise of Hidden a project I conceived that proposes the possibility that characters with an intellectual disability (ID) have always existed in renowned theatre literature but have never been played by actors with ID. In June 2015, with an integrated cast of 10 actors both with and without ID, we explored Dancing at Lughnasa by Brian Friel and King Lear by William Shakespeare. Discoveries that were made were truly exciting: the effect of casting an actor with an intellectual disability in a relevant role unashamedly challenged the dynamics of each play. It is a creative project that will definitely come to future fruition.

Another huge project realized was the filming of Sanctuary. Christian O'Reilly adapted his stage play, commissioned by Blue Teapot in 2012, into a screenplay. The Irish Film Board and The Broadcasting Authority of Ireland both committed to fund the film with Edwina Forkin of Zanzibar Films producing and Len Collin directing. Len had worked with the Blue Teapot actors previously in 2011 on a screenwriting project 84. The film shoot commenced on 30th of November in time to capture the magic of Christmas in Galway.

To bring 2015 to a magical close a performance of St Lucy's Day was performed to a full house in Nuns Island Theatre by a large cast spanning three of Blue Teapots projects. Devised and directed by Rod Goodall it took place in Nuns Island Theatre and was capped off by a winter barbeque!

ANNUAL REPORT 2015

The Performing Arts School students continued their training journey and in September progressed onto QQI Level 3 modules in their third and final year. Blue Teapot wishes to acknowledge the ongoing support of Michael Keady from the HSE and Fiona O’Loughlin in GRETB.

On behalf of the Board, I would like to acknowledge the services of Director Adrian Harney who retired from the Board in 2015. Adrian has been a loyal supporter of Blue Teapot Theatre Company for many years and his commitment to the development of the company is greatly appreciated. The Board welcomed new member John McHugo of Ability West.

The Board focused on developing a new Strategic Plan this year and continued to progress the adoption of The Governance Code for Community, Voluntary and Charitable Organisations. I would also like to express the Board’s appreciation and gratitude to all of our funders in particular to our major funding partners the Brothers of Charity Services Galway, Ability West and Galway Roscommon Education and Training Board and to all of the funders listed in the report. Without their continued support of Blue Teapot the great achievements and successes could not have happened.

LOOKING AHEAD IN 2016

The filming of Sanctuary will continue into January and we impatiently await the world premiere! Edwina Forkin (producer at Zanzibar Films) intends to promote it in national and international film festivals and open it on general release in the autumn.

We will welcome the findings from our specially commissioned Social Return on Investment report, produced by Quality Matters which had a delayed delivery date and is now due early 2016.

Blue Teapot will produce new piece of theatre Waiting for Elvis adapted by Eileen Gibbons for the company from her original stage play of the same title.

The Galway bid for European Capital of Culture 2020 is wholeheartedly supported by Blue Teapot. It has been a privilege to be part of the conversation for reimagining our City of the Tribes into a place that proudly celebrates diversity across all cultural expressions. By actively engaging its citizens in the co-creation of a big vision for Galway the bid team has already facilitated pathways to manifesting a vibrant future for Galway.

PROJECTS AND EVENTS

HIDDEN:

- Blue Teapot's Artistic Director Petal Pilley embarked on a two week exploration of two classic theatrical texts – King Lear (week one) and Dancing At Lughnasa (week two). This exploration involved Blue Teapot actors working alongside well known non-disabled actors in pivotal roles/ integral characters that could have been written as a person with an intellectual disability: The Fool from William Shakespeare's King Lear and Rose from Brian Friel's Dancing at Lughnasa. The ensemble explored the innate way casting an actor with an intellectual disability would impact the dynamics of these plays, uncovering a different experience of them and how this might impact both the actors and audience in unexpected ways.
- The integrated cast included those with a wealth of experience on stage & screen: Rod Goodall, Helen Gregg, Orla McGovern, Fred McCloskey, Hillary Kavanagh, Garrett Phillips and Tara Breathnach. Dramaturge & Literary Manager of Fishamble: New Play Company Gavin Kostick was engaged as part of this process.

ST.LUCY'S DAY – Christmas performance

- Bright Soul & Performing Arts School cap another exceptional year for with a celebration of St. Lucy's Day (13th December) for an end of year Christmas Hooley, devised & directed by Rod Goodall, costumes by Charmian Goodall and music by Barry Duffy.
- With a performance held in Nuns Island Theatre, the principle cast were the PAS students supported by Bright Soul members and singer/actor Garrett Phillips.
- It was a full house, with over 100 audience members enjoying the spectacle.

SANCTUARY – FEATURE FILM

NOVEMBER 2015 – JANUARY 2016

- Coming to a cinema near you (2016/7), the feature film version of Sanctuary began a 5 week shoot in Galway City. Funded by The Irish Film Board, Broadcasting Authority of Ireland and RTE, this is a feature film version of our original play by Christian O'Reilly. The film, also written by Christian, is directed by Len Collin, produced by Edwina Forkin (Zanzibar Films) and features the original Blue Teapot cast.

National Award for Blue Teapot Volunteer.

- Blue Teapot's most long-term volunteer Ronan Loughney (of Connaught Rugby) was shortlisted for the Volunteer Ireland Award in the Arts, Culture & Media section. The awards ceremony was held in Dublin on 3rd December and we were thrilled that Ronan won his category. Ronan is the first professional sportsman ever to win a Volunteer Ireland national award. Ronan has been a stalwart of our Bright Soul project for a decade and we are indebted to him for his time, expertise and unwavering support of Blue Teapot.

CORPORATE DONORS

MEDTRONIC GALWAY - MISSION IN MOTION

- We were the nominated Irish charity for an annual international project MISSION IN MOTION which takes place with Medtronic whereby almost 50 Medtronic employees volunteered to spruce up areas of our premises including brand new storage in the art room, ventilation in the public bathrooms as well as interior and exterior painting. The value in kind was immense and Medtronic contributed €4000 (approx. €3,600) to enable specialist suppliers – plumbers, electricians etc. to carry out the work and for materials.
- Just one weekend was all it took to re-paint Blue Teapot Theatre exterior building, paint interior walls & ceilings, install shelving and storage in the art room, install extractor fans in the downstairs bathrooms and a rubber grip matting was laid on the entrance in to the theatre. Staff & some of the Teapots joined in the action and it made a significant impact on the premises. Members of community, i.e neighbouring shops & residents commented on what a good job was being done, and how it was helping the overall area

ICE Cube and Tec Support

- In the first weekend of October, five members of the ICECube and TecSupport team braved the Killarney Adventure Race – in which they cycled, kayaked and ran a 27km course through the scenic Killarney Mountains and parklands. The highlight of the route was the infamous ‘cardiac steps’ – a long, steep, rocky climb up the side of Torc Mountain. Team members Brendan Cox), Melissa Johnston, Gavan O’ Brien, Gary Cox, and Liam Burke– trained for months in advance of the event in the company’s own on premise gym. Brendan Cox is the brother of Jennifer Cox, member of Blue Teapot Theatre Company.
- This endeavor brought in sponsorship raised at just over €3,000 and we are so grateful to everyone that supported them in their valiant efforts.
